Hearken unto the words of Bela and Anna, King and Queen of the Mighty Stag Throne!

We rejoice with Our Fellow Outlanders the outcome of a Crown Tournament fought with outstanding courtesy and honor. May Our True Heirs find as much generosity and good will among the people of These Lands as has been freely bestowed upon Us.

The month of April brings a time of such bittersweetness. Though with heavy heart We watch as Our Baroness Mary closes her final Court, it is with open arms that We welcome Sir Robert Magnus and Lady Magge Magnus as the next Coronet of Caerthe. We trust that they will follow the fine footpath that has been laid before them as they lead Our Barony to a bright new day.

Our journeys this month will come full circle. After many glorious battles at a Sworded Affair, We will have worked up an appetite that can only be sated by the delectable creations of Our Fine Chefs at Something Yummier. We will also have opportunity to revel in the beauty of Our Artisans' creations. As always, it is such a joy to converse with entrants in Kingdom Arts and Sciences and Queen's Prize about their research and works.

Assembled with all in service to the Dream,
We remain,

Bela and Anna

NOTICE

March 13th, 2010

Greetings to all who come by these letters,
Cu'mara (being Christopher Wint mundanely) has been absolutely banished by Bela and Anna King and Queen of the Outlands. This has been done in accordance with Section X, Paragraph A, Item #2 of Corpora of the Society for Creative Anachronism.

Bela King Anna Queen

Seneschal

Greetings,
The Board of Directors Meeting for the Society for Creative Anachronism will take place this month on April 17th. I am not sure what the entire agenda will be, but the issue of finances will be a major topic they will be discussing. I have already heard proposals being made to raise the nonmember surcharge and membership dues. I will keep you apprised via the Outlands email list of their decisions as soon as I get any information. The majority of your membership dues pay the insurance premiums that cover the SCA at all registered events throughout the Known World. The cost of these premiums continues to increase over time, as well as other operating expenses. Having belonged to other organizations both professional and social in my life I find that our dues are comparatively reasonable. Still an increase is never pleasant, but rest assured the Board is looking at many options in order to meet our financial needs.
Congratulations to the Heirs to the Stag Throne. May they live long and prosper in Their Lands. I would like to thank the Barony of al-Barran and everyone that worked so hard to make Crown Tournament such a success.
The time draws ever closer for the first Battlemoor Mountain Crusades. As I said in last month's issue, this promises to be an epic event that will rival any of the really big events that you may have attended in other Kingdoms. Please put this on your calendar for the summer camping season if you possibly can.
In conclusion, I will be in attendance at Sworded Affair and possibly Kingdom A&S this month. As always, if you would like to visit with me about anything please feel free to find me at one of these events.

Yours in Service,
Master James David

White Stag

Greetings to the Good Folk of the Outlands –
I would like to thank everyone who helped with the procession and heraldic activities at Crown Tournament. It is my first "big" event as White Stag and I hope it went well.
This past February, my predecessor and I reviewed the roster of Heralds and dropped several people who she had not heard from in several years. If you are no longer on the roster and feel you should be, please contact me and we will work it out. I will also be reviewing the warrant dates of the Kingdom and group Heralds and contacting those gentles whose warrants are going to be expiring in the next quarter. Towards that I will be opening applications for a few positions in the next few months. If you have ever wanted to be active in the College of Heralds at a Kingdom level, please let me know.
This month, I am accepting applications for Palmer Herald. This position is the Assistant Administrative Herald and Emergency Deputy to White Stag. It is the position I held before becoming White Stag. While my predecessor has graciously agreed to accept the position for a short time, I know that she and I will both be happier when a regular appointment has been made. To apply, please send me a letter of interest that includes your experience as a Herald and any other offices you have held. Please send your letters to whitestag@outlands.org.
As always, I would like to hear any comments you have about the College of Heralds. Complements, complaints, and general commentary are all appreciated. This month I will be at Kingdom A&S in Caer Galen if you want to talk to me face to face. Look for the Arab with the loom.
Question for the Month – How do you figure out who sits where on the dais at a Royal Court? This is all determined by precedence with the Crown in the central position and the decreasing precedence alternating from one side to the other. The exception to this is hosting Territorial Barons and Baronesses who will usually have the position of honor at the Crown's right hand. The precedence of the Baronies of the Outlands is Caerthe, al-Barran, Dragonspine, Citadel of the Southern Pass, Unser Hafen, Caer Galen, and Fontaine dans Sable.

In Service to the Outlands
Sheik Omar Mohammud Mirzazadeh

Earl Marshal

Greetings!

The monthly marshal reports are due each and every month. These reports are used to determine where activities are being held, who is most active with these activities, and who would be a good resource for other areas that are struggling. These reports are important. Authorizing marshals are to report as well so i can maintain a list of who is marshaling where. Coordinating the fighting skills throughout the kingdom is critical, especially new comers.

Experience fighters should take extra time with new comers or with fighters that are using a new weapon style for the first time. Several injuries over the years were due to new comers or fighters using a new weapon style. Look for someone that is new to melees. We want and need people to enjoy fighting in all of its forms across this kingdom. Enthusiasm spreads to other people and we see more fighters.

The first All Marshall meeting will be at Grand Outlandish, the second at Battlemoor and the third at Stag's Con. Please look for these meetings and remember that you are to attend one meeting per year.

Sir Dennis the Wright

Minister of Children

Greetings to the great populace of the Outlands

Join us at Battlemoor for four fun filled days of children, youth and teen activities and classes, July 1-4 from 10am to noon and 1pm to 5pm at the Youth Hall. There will also be a carpeted and shaded area for parents to watch and play with their infants and very young children.

Youth, ages 8-12, can choose from Page Academy classes, period games, adult A&S classes, training in the martial arts, guided tours to Artisan's Row, classes in court dancing and period singing, a boffer tourney, boffer melees and opportunities to be in service.

It is late May in the great trade city of Ravensburg in what is now known as Germany. The snows of winter are finally gone and the roads begin to fill with merchants. The people of Ravensburg and the surrounding area have worked hard all winter to build up their stores of linen, fustian and paper to sell at the first market fair of the year and everyone is ready to celebrate the coming of summer with tournaments, competitions and revelry!

Please join the Canton of Hawks Hollow as we travel to mid-15th Century Germany in search of our champions for the coming year. On Friday, after your carts and pack animals are unloaded and your encampment is set up, join us for an afternoon of revelry, games and merriment. Saturday we will have a full day of tournaments of skill including Armored and Rapier combat, Archery, Equestrian events and Arts & Sciences, culminating in the ever-popular Crossroads Bardic on Saturday evening. Sunday is a less structured "play" day. Interested individuals or groups may host tournaments, melees, archery shoots, or whatever. The site offers extensive camping. Areas are set aside for Late-Night Party folks, the Darbuka Drum Camp, and Family Fields; also specific Archery, Equestrian and Combat Camps located close to the fighting fields for easy access! Among the shade trees and grassy fields, the site offers potable water, flush and portable toilets, permanent equestrian facilities, lots of parking and an indoor feast and class facility.

A glorious feast is planned for Saturday evening, and will be in the German style, featuring bratwurst, homemade spaetzle with gravy, and a vegetable dish. Should you have dietary restrictions, please contact the Feast Steward before the cutoff date to see if accommodations may be made. Feast reservations will be limited to 50 persons, and MUST be pre-paid in advance. Feast cut off will be May 19, 2010 unless we sell out sooner, so get your reservations EARLY! A paid feast is a guaranteed feast.

Site is WET. As there will be Equestrian events, per SCA law, additional equestrian waivers are required to be signed at gate. Parking permits will be issued at gate and ALL vehicles in the camping area will limited to loading and unloading only. This will be strictly enforced.

Directions:
From Denver: take I-70 east to Byers, Exit 316. Turn left on Main St. (North on US-36) and proceed for approx 1/2 mile to Quint Valley Fairgrounds - entrance on the left.
